1. Definition of additional learning needs

In this plan, additional learning needs (ALN) refers to a learning difficulty that requires additional educational provision.

The ALN Code of Practice (July 2024) says children have a learning difficulty if they:

- (a) have a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of children of their age; or
- (b) have a disability which prevents or hinders them from making use of educational facilities of a kind generally provided in schools for children of their age; or
- (c) are under the age of five years and are, or would be if special educational provision were not made for them, likely to fall within paragraph (a) or (b) above when over that age.

A child does not have a learning difficulty solely because the language in which they are, or will be, taught is different from a language which has at any time been spoken in their home.

2. Definition of disability

Disability is a term, set out in The Prevention of Discrimination (Guernsey) Ordinance, 2022: A person has the protected ground of disability if the person has one or more long term impairments. A long-term impairment is an impairment which

- (a) has lasted, or is expected to last, for not less than six months, or
- (b) is expected to last until the end of a person's life.

Not all learners who have a disability will have ALN. They only have ALN if the disability prevents or hinders them from making use of educational or training facilities of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in education settings, and they need additional learning provision. (ALN Code of Practice, 2024).

3. Key Objective

This Accessibility Action Plan helps to identify potential barriers for disabled learners and considers what improvements. Schools must have an Accessibility Action Plan in place by October 2028.

4. Aims

At St Anne's School, we are committed to creating and sustaining a culture that values, supports and promotes diversity in its broadest sense. Our school community brings together a rich mix of people with differing perspectives, learning abilities, skills, background and experiences. Our school aims to treat all its pupils fairly and with respect. This involves providing access and opportunities for all pupils without discrimination of any kind.

We aim to reduce all types of discrimination:

- Direct discrimination - Treating someone less favourably than you treat or would treat others, because of a protected ground.
- Discrimination by association - Treating someone less favourably than you treat or would treat others, because of their association with another person, in circumstances where similar treatment of that other person would constitute direct discrimination
- Indirect discrimination - Applying a provision, criterion or practice (PCP) which puts those who share a protected ground (including the specific individual in question) at a particular disadvantage, and which cannot be justified as a proportionate means of achieving a legitimate aim (objective justification).
- Discrimination arising from disability - Treating a person unfavourably because of something arising in consequence of their disability

Our school's complaints procedure covers the accessibility plan. If you have any concerns relating to accessibility in school, this procedure sets out the process for raising these concerns.

In particular, St Anne's recognises its duty to:

- Not discriminate against learners with a disability in admissions, suspensions and provision of education;
- Not treat disabled learners less favourably for a reason related to their disability;
- Make reasonable adjustments for disabled learners or staff, so that they are not at a substantial disadvantage;
- Plan to enable full access to education for disabled learners;
- Publish an Accessibility Action Plan;
- Recognise and value parents/carers' knowledge of their child's disability and its effect on their ability to carry out normal activities and respect their rights to confidentiality;
- Provide all learners with a broad and balanced curriculum, adapted to meet the needs of individual learners and their needs;
- Set suitable learning challenges;
- Overcome potential barriers to learning and assessment for individuals and groups of learners.

5. Reasonable adjustments

Under legislation, schools have a duty to make reasonable adjustments when providing education. Reasonable adjustments are changes made to remove or reduce a substantial disadvantage for disabled learners. These may include, but are not limited to:

- Adapting the curriculum;
- Agreeing to a different way to undertake learning;
- Providing equipment, resources or specialist support and
- Making changes to the physical feature of the setting to improve accessibility.

The aim is to ensure that disabled people have access to the same opportunities and the same services, as far as possible, as someone who's not disabled. Education providers do not need to provide the adjustment if it would be a disproportionate burden to do so.

St Anne's School is committed to making the school environment as accessible as possible for learners, staff and visitors. The school buildings and facilities are accessible to all.

In relation to accessing the curriculum, the school will continue to seek and follow the advice of the States of Guernsey and outside agencies, such as specialist teacher advisors, ALN consultants and appropriate health professionals. The school will use, where possible, the available resources (human and physical) to offer assistance during assessments or exams, use of aids and equipment, including assistive technology, and re-rooming of lessons.

Reasonable adjustments have been made to the school premises to increase accessibility, including a lift, ramps edged stairs and hand rails. There is an 'All Access Changing and Toilet' facility available.

The school will provide information to students, staff, parents/carers and visitors in alternative formats when required or requested.

Learners with additional needs are supported by:

- High Quality Inclusive Practice, including adapted teaching and learning activities;
- Provision of aids such as laptops or reader pens which are part of learners' normal way of working;
- Small group or 1:1 interventions following pupil progress meetings, including literacy, numeracy, social and emotional needs;
- Bespoke timetable/reduced or alternative curriculum for identified learners;
- Lift and ramps installed, making all classrooms/school buildings accessible for all, including wheelchair users;
- Stairs with yellow edges/bannisters to assist the visually impaired;
- Health Care Plans shared with staff and displayed in staffroom;

- Examination Access Arrangements are applied for if they are reasonable adjustments that reflect the pupil's normal way of working.

6. Examinations

Pupils with additional needs will be supported through every examination series to ensure that there is equality of opportunity.

All examination centre staff ensure that the access arrangements and special consideration regulations and guidance are consistent with the law.

Procedures

- All exam rooms are accessible; chairs are made available when queuing outside, if needed;
- There is an appropriate toilet near all areas;
- Emergency evacuation procedures are appropriate for all candidates and risk assessments are carried out as appropriate prior to the examination series;
- All areas have had internal risk assessments carried out;
- If any candidate needs to take regular medication, invigilators will make this possible;

- Invigilators will be briefed of any exceptional issues concerning communication or other factors which may affect the candidate;

- All invigilators will either receive training including disability issues or will work alongside an experienced invigilator;
- The ALNCo will make the Examinations Officer aware of any issues concerning individuals in the main exam rooms;
- The ALNCo will take the lead in applying for access arrangements online, based on appropriate assessments and knowledge of candidate needs. A list of candidates with access arrangements will be produced and available in the files.
- Any complaints made by candidates with disabilities should be directed, in the first instance, to the Examinations Officer, who will initiate an enquiry.

7. Monitoring arrangements

This document will be reviewed annually but may be reviewed and updated more frequently if necessary. It will be approved by the Headteacher.
